An Evening with Alicia Kearns

Former Government Advisor on terrorism and crisis management expert

Thursday 24th January 2019

Starting at 7.00pm

Hope Cottage
Hooe Road
Ninfield
TN33 9EL

In the 2017 General Election Alicia Kearns stood in Mitcham and Morden, delivering the best result for the Conservatives since 1987, and bucking the trend of losses in London. Alicia Kearns is an expert in countering violent extremism, countering disinformation and hybrid warfare interventions. During her career Alicia has worked for the UK's Foreign and Commonwealth Office, where she led UK Government interventions in Syria and Iraq, and advised over 70 Governments on how to defeat the terrorist group Daesh (ISIS), insurgent groups, and counter malign state disinformation efforts. This included countering Russian disinformation in Syria, and managing communications for the UK Government at the UN-led peace talks on Syria and deployments to Iraq. Alicia also worked at the UK Ministry of Defence and Ministry of Justice. Expert in managing crises, Alicia has handled nuclear leaks, prison-riots, incidents during military operations, live hospital murder investigations, and crises across the Middle East. She is regularly interviewed in the media as an expert on national threats, including by BBC Radio 4, the Daily Telegraph, The Times, Sunday Times, the Guardian, Financial Times and the Huffington Post.
